FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Miss Pennsylvania Teams Up with Sun Inn Organizations To Hold Joint Fundraiser

What does a Scholarship Organization for young women have in common with the Bethlehem's Moravian Sun Inn? "Both organizations are non-profits who need to raise funds", said Richard "Bucky" Szulborski who sits on the boards of both organizations. Szulborski proposed the idea of a joint fundraiser using the Miss Pennsylvania talent and the local support for the Sun Inn to create a musical review fundraiser.

Szulborski contacted Kate Wilson the 2001 Miss Pennsylvania 2nd runner up who directed a similar event last year in Philadelphia and invited her to Bethlehem to see the Sun Inn and the Moravian College facility. "A key component of the Miss America Program is Community Service and I see the Sun Inn as a part of history and a great asset to this community," said Ms. Wilson.

"Broadway in Bethlehem" a musical review of Broadway hits will be held on Sunday afternoon, October 23rd at 2:00 p.m. at Prosser Auditorium at Moravian College. Starring in the show will be Nicole Brewer, Miss Pennsylvania 2005 along with other Miss PA performers and a special performance by the O'Grady Quinlan Academy of Irish Dance. A reception to meet the performers will follow.

Tickets are $20 a person and can be purchased at the Sun Inn Gift Shop or over the phone by calling the Sun Inn Office at 610-866-1758. Visa and MasterCard are accepted. Proceeds will benefit the Sun Inn Restoration and the Miss Pennsylvania Scholarship Fund. The Miss Pennsylvania Scholarship Organization, Inc. is an official franchise of the Miss America Organization, the largest scholarship organization in the world for young women. The Sun Inn Preservation Association, Inc. is a non-profit 501(c)(3).
